This appeal is preferred against the judgment of this Court in W.P.C.1600/07. We find no infirmity in the finding of the learned Single Judge. We are told that an appeal has been preferred before the STAT with a delay condonation application. All the same, it is open to the appellant to pursue the same before the STAT for proper remedy. We are not expressing any opinion on the merits of the case. Hence, the appeal lacks merit and it is dismissed untrammeled by the observations made in the impugned judgment.
